NOTED PIONEER OF FORT WAYNE

John B. DuBois (1806-1876) was one of Fort Wayne's well known pioneers. He was a member of the board of trustees of the Village of Fort Wayne after its original incorporation in 1829. He came here from New Orleans where he was born of French parents.

He began his career here in the tailoring business in partnership with John Edsall. Later Mr. DuBois became a lawyer and real estate agent. He served as Wayne township justice of peace and was known as "Squire" DuBois. He resided first in the historic council house on East Main, and then built the DuBois home at East Lewis and Hanna Sts.

The DuBois family assisted in the formation of the First Presbyterian Church here. They rest in Lindenwood, one of America's great historic cemeteries where there will always be adequate burial facilities for future generations.

Mrs. Bob Rondot
4110 Tacoma Avenue
Fort Wayne, Indiana 46807

Dear DeEtte, Since I can't seem to get to the phone at a good time to call you, I'm sending this card and hoping that you will share it with your father-in-law. A pamphlet published by The Allen County-Fort Wayne Historical Society in 1958 and titled INDEX TO THE SIXTH CENSUS OF THE UNITED STATES FOR ALLEN COUNTY, INDIANA 1840, compiled by Cleo Goff Wilkens, shows

"Felendin, Etenot Wayne 22" on page 9. It took your father-in-law's expertise to correctly read the entry as "Felder, Ignatz." How grateful we are to him! It is because of his skill that we were able to prove that Ken's great-great-grandfather, Ignatius Felter, lived here in 1840 and ~~was~~, therefore, an Indiana Pioneer.

Thanks Again,

Jo Lauer
